WHICH WAY THE WIND BLEW.

The wind came up the wind came down,
And o'er the garden wall;
Why should a pretty maiden frown
If a lover choose to call?
The ruffled roses bowed their heads
In a shower of fragrant dew;
But under the skies you couldn't surmise
Which way the sweet wind blew.

It's hey for tossing buds and leaves
When the winds of morning blow!
Tell us how long a lover grieves
When a maiden answers—No!
For another step was at the gate,
And the hearts that met were true;
By many a mark you could divine
Which way the sweet wind blew.

—Appleton's Journal.

THE ABSURDITY OF TIGHT LACING.—There would be no tight lacing if girls could be made to understand this simple fact—that men dread the thought of marrying a woman who is subject to fits of irritable temper, to bad headaches, and other ailments we need not mention, all of which, everybody knows, are the direct and inevitable product of the compression of the waist. Men like to see a small waist, certainly, but there is a very great difference between the waist which is well-formed and in proportion to the rest of the figure, and a waist which is obviously and artificially compressed, to the destruction of that easy and graceful carriage which is one of the chief charms of a woman's appearance. An unnaturally compressed waist is far more certain of detection than a mass of false hair or a faint dusting of violet powder. The rawest youth who enters a ball-room can pick out the women who have straitened themselves artificially; and there is no more ready handle for his harmless jokes. If the young lady who, to obtain the appearance of a dragon fly, has been subjecting herself to considerable physical pain, and who has been laying up for herself a pretty store of ailments, which only want time to pronounce themselves, could only see the stare of scarcely-disguised contempt, and understand the scornful pity which greet the result of her labor, we should have a change of the fashion—and it is merely a fashion. There is nothing intrinsically beautiful in an unnaturally small waist, and if it were the fashion to go into the opposite extreme, women would see beauty in padded waists. It is a great misfortune that popular taste never alters in this as it alters in other matters. Observers may notice with what a regular ebb and flow wide skirts and narrow skirts alternate; how we have the peg-top garments of men followed by the sailor's wide ankled attire; how square-pointed boots give place to peak-toed boots, and how the peak toes go out again for the square points. Through all changes women remain true to only one fashion. Whether her clothing is as long and lank as that of a Grecian virgin, or whether she builds around the lower half of her figure a round and capacious structure of steel, she is for ever faithful to the tradition of a small waist; and she will weaken her circulation, she will make her hands red, she will incur headache, she will crack her voice, and she will ruin her digestion, all to produce a malformation which wise men regard with pity and fools with derision.—Lynchburg News.

LOUIS NAPOLEON'S MEMORY.—Napoleon III has an extraordinary memory for names, figures, faces and miscellaneous facts. A German professor, who was called to Paris in connection with the publication of the "Vie de Cæsar," relates that it was Napoleon's invariable habit, on having communicated to him a name or number, or any brief fact which he wished to remember, to write it down in a note book kept exclusively for that purpose, and which always lay upon his desk. After writing down the memorandum, he would tear the leaf out of the book, read it over once attentively and then tear the leaf up. And he told the professor that, after impressing a fact on his mind by this process, he never forgot it. The key to this extraordinary faculty of memory doubtless lies in the fact that, during his long years of imprisonment, in early life, he did not dare to carry important memoranda about him. He was obliged to rely on his memory; but that he did not at first trust it altogether is seen by the fact that, through the force of habit, he is still obliged to make sure of a fact by writing it down, and so fixing it in his mind, instead of trusting entirely to the sense of hearing to act upon his memory

A REBUKE FOR SHERIDAN, BUTLER, SHERMAN, AND OTHER YANKEE GENERALS.—Two Prussian regiments having committed excesses in the little French towns of Falkenberg and Remilly, such as pillaging houses and destroying property, Count Bismarck has ordered the names of these two regiments, and those of their officers, to be published in all German papers. The Germans have reimbursed the French inhabitants as far as was in their power. A rigorous examination has been instituted by Bismarck, and the regiments sent to the rear, being stripped of their banners and all emblems of honor. The guilty regiments were the Second Hesse Darmstadt Infantry and the Twelfth Prussian Line.

A NEW FISH STORY.—Mr. Sumner Clark of Cornville, Maine, a few days since, was digging a ditch through a piece of low land, and when at the depth of three or four feet he struck a vein of pure water that gushed out two inches or more in diameter. As he stood looking at it a fish five or six inches long appeared, and at length another, until he had gathered thirty. The fish resembled what is usually known as a chub.

Robinson met Smith as he was going on board a steamer on the Mississippi, and asked, "Which way, Smith—up or down?" "That depends upon circumstances," remarked the latter. "If I get a berth over the boiler, I shall probably go up; if in the cabin, down."

"I require," said a sage of the Indian tribe of Penobscots, "but three things to make me happy." "What is the first?" inquired a seeker of wisdom. "Tobacco," was the reply. "What is the second?" "Rum." "Well, what is the third?" "Why," said the philosopher, contemplatively, "a little more rum."

"I never shot a bird in my life," said a friend to an Irishman who replied, "I never shot anything in the shape of a bird but a squirrel, which I killed with a stone, when it fell into the river and was drowned."

INVESTING IN VIRGINIA LANDS.—Hon. Ben. Wood, of New York, is investing largely in Virginia lands. He owns $70,000 in one of the tide water counties. He is also investing in North Carolina lands.—

One of our oldest lawyers says that the three most troublesome clients he ever had were a young woman who wanted to be married, a married woman who wanted a divorce, and an old maid who didn't know what she wanted.

The devil used to be the father of lies. If this is so, he has got a large family and a great many promising children among them.

THE SENTINEL

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1870.

"WHO GARBLED THAT LETTER?"

The true answer to this question is of more importance to the people of North Carolina than the simple identification of the party who garbled the letter in question. The moral and political condition of the State in its influence upon the public abroad, was a matter in which representative men filling important offices like Gov. Holden, Senator Abbott and Judge Tourgee, ought to have been deeply interested. If that condition was bad, they should have been the last to magnify it. They knew that the injury such statements would effect, could not be simply political, but must seriously militate against the credit of the State and would also deter settlers from coming among us; a thing which they professed to desire to effect. Such statements therefore, if made at all, should have been strictly confined to the truth.

But Judge Tourgee, the author of the letter, knew that his statements in his original letter were false and were so stated as to make a false impression. Senator Abbott knew they were false and so did Gov. Holden, and they designed by the exhibition of the letter to President Grant and the Northern Radicals, to justify them before the Northern public in the diabolical scheme they had concocted of carrying the August election by the aid of bayonets and to involve the State in civil war. They were utterly reckless of the ruin it would bring upon the State in all respects, so they could effect their wicked scheme.

Tourgee's original letter declared that there had been fourteen murders committed by the Ku Klux within his judicial circuit in ten months, and that they had forcibly broken open 400 or 500 houses for criminal purposes in the same period. Tourgee retracted after he saw he was exposed, and wrote to the Tribune that his letter had been garbled in two particulars; that he wrote four murders instead of fourteen and that he had written "400 or 500" house breakings, instead of 4,000 or 5,000. When Abbott sent the original letter to the Tribune, the editor declared that the first item was not garbled, that Tourgee had written 14 murders instead of 4, but the second item had been garbled by adding an "0" to his "400 and 500." By his own showing therefore, it is plain that Tourgee had lied in the first instance, but that either Abbott or Holden had garbled, or it had been done by some one, while the letter was in their custody, in the second instance. Abbott exempts himself from this charge. Holden denies the garbling, but his card to the public, and the Tribune and its correspondent, fixes the garbling on him. From this conclusion, Holden cannot escape. See how plain the Tribune of the 21st inst. makes it.

That paper publishes Holden's card, appending its remarks and the letter of its correspondent, as below given, and makes the following pointed editorial on the whole matter. The Tribune says:

We commend to Gov. Holden his own card concerning the garbling of the Tourgee letter, printed elsewhere in our columns, "with accompanying documents."—Nothing could be more pitiable than the position in which he is left. After the wanton charge against our correspondent of breach of confidence, and the wanton charge against our proof-readers of making the mistakes which appeared in the copy he gave our correspondent, he is welcome to all the credit he can get for his declaration that he knows nothing about the garbling.

The case stands thus: Judge Tourgee wrote that 400 or 500 houses had been broken oped by the Ku Klux. Gov. Holden furnished our correspondent a copy of this letter, in which the figures were raised to 4,000 or 5,000, at a time when the political benefit of this startling change would be immensely in his favor. We printed it exactly according to copy. Senator Abbott proves that it was correct when he gave it to Gov. Holden. It was garbled when Gov. Holden gave it to us. We leave him to make what further explanations he may think needful at his leisure.

The Tribune publishes Gov. Holden's card, which we have already published and to which we refer the reader, in which he charge mistakes in the proof reading of the Tribune and denies that he knew anything about the garbling. The Tribune then says:

[When Gov. Holden wrote the above he must have seen the distinct editorial statement in THE TRIBUNE that we had compared the original copy sent us with the letter as published in our columns, and that no mistakes had been made in the proof-reading—that we had printed the letter accurately, and precisely as received. Our correspondent deals with his other statements below.—Ed]

To the Editor of the Tribune:

SIR: The recent card of Gov. Holden, of N. C., relative to the publication of Judge Tourgee's letter in the Tribune, calls for a personal statement of the facts in the case as far as I am concerned. Gov. Holden's card contains the following: "In order to post Mr. Beecher on the subject of these (Ku Klux) outrages, I handed him the copy of Judge Tourgee's letter, with an injunction not to publish it, as it was a private letter. I was surprised soon after to see it in the Tribune."

The facts are these: Gov. Holden gave me Judge Tourgee's letter, saying at first that he was not authorized to give it for publication; but upon my representing that, as an authoritative statement, it would be desirable to have it printed in the Tribune, he seemed to agree with me on that point, and undertook to telegraph Judge Tourgee for his consent thereto. S. A. Douglas, the Governor's Aid, was instructed to send the message to Judge Tourgee, and to him I remarked that I should forward the letter to the Tribune (as there was little time to spare,) and if Judge Tourgee refused to allow its publication should forbid it by telegraph. I heard nothing further from the Governor or his Aid on the subject. A few days later, when the Tribune containing my correspondence and Judge Tourgee's letter appeared in Raleigh, Gov. Holden expressed himself as gratified with my work, and made not the slightest allusion to any breach of confidence, or any surprise at the publication of the Judge's letter. My impression is that I stated to Gov. Holden personally, as well as to his Aid and Private Secretary, my purpose of sending Judge Tourgee's letter to the Tribune. I cannot but believe that he expected its publication as he gave me no intimation of an adverse answer from Tourgee, and expressed no surprise to me at seeing it in the Tribune, as he had more than one opportunity of doing.

EUGENE F. BEECHER.

Brooklyn, Sept. 20, 1870.

The foregoing puts Holden in a "pitiable condition," as the Tribune says, and it ought to forewarn the Northern public against crediting the statements of Tourgee, Holden, Abbott and Pool, upon this subject, as well as the written opinions of Judges Pearson, Dick and Settle, in regard to the criminal conduct of Ku Klux in this State. The statements of the Judges have not been garbled, but they make an exhibit of criminal charges against the Ku Klux, upon the testimony of lying and suborned witnesses, known to be bad men in whom the public have no confidence, ignoring entirely the counter statements of better men during the investigation. The charge that the Ku Klux outrages were committed upon innocent men on account of their politics and that there were 40,000 Ku Klux in the State, was not proven before these Judges, but was stated by one witness as matters of opinion and of rumor, and he a notorious liar and thief.

KIRK ARRESTED AND RESCUED BY THE UNITED STATES MARSHAL.

On Tuesday last we had bench warrants along the line of the N. C. Railroad for the arrest of George W. Kirk, who was expected to leave by the western train on Tuesday or Wednesday. We had taken out one also in Wake, but Judges Dick and Settle, made it short-lived by requiring it to be returned in Greensborough on the 10th inst. This warrant was emasculated, (purposely we believe,) by forbidding the Sheriff of Wake to make the arrest either in Alamance or Caswell, the two counties where Kirk had the judicial sanction for riding over law and order, and where only he was likely to be found until he got ready to slip out of the State.

Kirk having been brought to Raleigh, we, on Thursday morning at eight o'clock, started a messenger on horseback to Smithfield to procure a bench warrant from Judge Watts, both against Kirk and Holden. The train which arrived here at 7 o'clock Thursday evening brought the warrant for the arrest of Kirk, which was forthwith placed in the hands of Sheriff Lee. The Sheriff informed us he could not serve the warrant on Kirk, because he was in the custody of the United States Marshal, whereupon we offered the Sheriff indemnity in a bond of $50,000 with good security, if he would execute the warrant. This he declined, but said, if his counsel advised him that he could arrest Kirk he would do so. We then set out to find and consult Hon. Sion H. Rogers, his counsel, who, we found, was at Smithfield Court.

The Sheriff then ordered his deputy, Mr. Albert Magnum, to hitch the gray horse to the yellow skeleton buggy and take us to the residence of Mr. Batchelor, and gave him instructions to serve the warrant on Kirk if Mr. Batchelor said it was proper to do so. As we passed the gas lights, some of the boys, seeing us in Tim Lee's buggy, wanted to know if we had "gone over," but heedless of the question, we went over the Railroad bridge to Mr. Batchelor's and found that he was not at home.

On returning we met Sheriff Lee in Hillsboro' street, who informed us that his counsel Col. E. G. Haywood, said he could not take Kik out of the hands of the Marshal, and that we must defer further proceedings till morning.

We requested the Sheriff to return with us to Mr. Haywood, to whom we stated the facts in the case—that on the 19th of August we had given Marshal Carrow a writ against Kirk, and that we had that night placed in his hands a bench warrant for his arrest, issued by Judge Watts. Mr. Haywood then told the Sheriff that he had been under a misapprehension in regard to the facts in the case, and that it was his duty to execute the warrant, and it was suggested to the Sheriff to notify the Marshal of his intention. To this we objected, telling the Sheriff it was his especial duty not to notify him. The deputy, however, was instructed to notify him and did it.

At 20 minutes to 9 o'clock, deputy Sheriff Magnin went to the house of Renfrow, the mail agent and member elect to the House of Commons, elected from Wake county to represent Halifax, where he found Kirk and informed him he had a warrant for his arrest. Marshal Carrow, who it seems, was accidentally present, told the deputy Sheriff that he could not have Kirk, as he was in his custody. And so the matter rested for the time.

There are some things in regard to this matter on which we should like to be informed. First, how long it takes Marshal Carrow to execute a writ placed in in his hands from a Judge of the U. S. District Court, and take bail or put his prisoner in confinement. Second, whether Raleigh has become a "city of refuge" to Kirk, like Alamance and Caswell. Third, whether the game now playing is for the purpose of allowing Kirk to escape from the State without answering the numerous charges of outrage made against him.

We tell the Marshall that the Union was formed and its officers appointed for no such purposes, and that writs for crime and violations of State laws will be served, despite the tricks of the criminal's friends. Kirk and Holden, too, will yet be made to answer for their unlawful acts.

Antonine Rush, a Portuguese, died in Wilmington on Wednesday, from the effects of a kick from a horse the day previous.

REMARKS OF WM. EATON, ESQ.

At the late Mass Meeting near Warrenton on the 3rd of September, 1870.

FELLOW-CITIZENS—I am not disposed to make a long speech on the present occasion, but I should do injustice to the county of Warren and to my own feelings if I did not respond in some way to the call which has been made upon me.

I participate strongly and cordially in the rejoicings of our friends over the late victory in North Carolina—one of the brightest events in the history of the State. When the glad tidings were borne to my eyes and my ears, I felt emotions of delight and gratification springing up in my bosom which language is inadequate to express.—The glad tidings came from almost every part of the State—from the Atlantic beach, from the shores of the Albemarle, from the valleys of our noble rivers, from the blue hills of Mecklenburg, over which the Star of American freedom first rose, and from the crests of the Blue Ridge and the Alleghany. Our people have been thoroughly aroused. Popular indignation arose against oppression and misrule, like the waves of old Ocean when swept by the storm. I knew that our cause was a good one, and that the talents, virtue and patriotism of North Carolina were arrayed on our side.—I hoped for success, but I did not expect—I did not dream of—a victory so complete and decisive as that which has been achieved.

The result is more gratifying to the sensibilities of the patriotic and more honorable to our people, when we consider the formidable difficulties which they had to encounter. It should be remembered that the Conservatives of North Caroline had to struggle against the power, patronage and influence of the National and State governments, and that efforts were made to alarm and intimidate them by sending upon the eve of the election, an imposing military force. When I think of these things, and then reflect upon the result and upon the good sense, firmness, forbearance, moderation and dignity exhibited by our citizens, I cannot but exclaim, in the fullness of an honest heart, GOD BLESS THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA. Heaven send down its choicest tokens of beneficence upon our honored mother—the good old North State. May her people ever enjoy that liberty and that prosperity and happiness of which they have proved themselves to be so eminently worthy.

Honored and blest be our gallant champions in the late exciting and arduous contest—those men who took up our drooping banner, when almost trailing in the dust, and bore it aloft over the field, radiant in the light of victory. Health, peace and happiness attend them, and all who are dear to them. They will ever enjoy the overflowing gratitude of all true North Carolinians. They will read it in their beaming faces; they will feel it in their gratulating hands. Some of them have been the subjects of the rude assaults of party malevolence and the shameful defamation of a licentious and profligate press; but a grateful and admiring people will cover them with an impenetrable shield. They will say to them, in all the fervor of their gushing affections, you have stood by us, and we will stand by you.

I congratulate you, fellow-citizens, upon our splendid success. I value more highly the peaceful trophies of the ballot box than the green laurels of the ensanguined field.—Our victory is not merely a triumph of men, deciding who are to enjoy the emoluments and honors of office, but it is far higher and nobler. It is the triumph of principle and patriotism—of truth, justice, virtue and honesty—of liberty and the constitution—in fact, a triumph of everything which ought to be dear to the heart of the pure and enlightened patriot. It is too, as I trust, the downfall in North Carolina of despotism, misrule and corruption, and of Holdenism, which embodies maladministration of governmental affairs in one significant and comprehensive word.—Well may abuse of power and usurpation of power pass under the name of Holdenism. In my opinion, all of the abuses perpetrated by all of our Governors since the Revolution, would not equal those committed by this man in the last six months. He has recently received a severe and scathing but well merited rebuke at the ballot box and at the bar of public opinion. Indeed, his military policy, his arbitrary arrests, his palpable usurpations, his refusal to yield obedience to the judicial authority, and his unfair and partisan conduct in office generally, have been contemplated with indignant disgust by wise and good men and enlightened patriots in the State and out of it, including many very prominent men who belong to his own party. Richard the 3rd of England, that monster of human depravity, said to his troops, according to Shakespeare, on the eve of the great battle in which the old tyrant was slain—"strong arms be our conscience—swords our law." Kirk and his myrmidons might have said the same when they marched under the orders of Holden against the unarmed and unoffending population of Alamance and Caswell. When I use the term "unoffending," I allude to the people generally of these counties—indeed almost universally. I know that atrocious crimes have been committed in both of them, such as the murder of Outlaw and the assassination of Stephens, which I regret and reprobate, as I do all acts of violence, disorder and outrage; but I utterly deny that a whole country is to be held responsible for the acts of a few malefactors. If this were so, no man could be safe for a single hour.

I have said that our victory on the 4th of August last was a noble one. Let us make a noble use of it, and prove by our conduct that we have deserved success.—Let us endeavor to restore the good old days of simplicity, economy, integrity and fidelity in the Legislature of North Carolina; and as far as practicable, in every department of the State goverment. Let us endeavor in the language of Thomas Jefferson, to have a wise and frugal government, which shall not take from the mouth of labor the bread it has earned. Let our ascendency be characterized by moderation, liberality and magnanimity, and by a sacred regard to the rights of all—high and low, rich and poor, black and white. It should however be remembered that justice does not require that public officers who have been guilty of crimes shall go unpunished, but it imperatively demands the punishment due to their offences.

A few words to our colored fellow-citizens. You have been repeatedly told, my black friends, that if the Conservatives should succeed in the election in this State, they would put you back into slavery.—The charge is absurd and ridiculous in the extreme. Slavery is prohibited not only by the constitution of this State, but also by that of the United States; and there is not the remotest probability that either of them will ever be changed upon this subject. There is not a single instance in the history of the world, so far as my information extends, in which the institution of domestic slavery has ever been abolished and afterwards restored; and the future history of the United States will furnish no such instance. Slavery is dead, dead, dead—so dead that the trump of the arch-angel could not wake it up from its last and long sleep. It can never be re established upon a single foot of American soil. No, never, never, never. As well might you expect the bright blue arch of the sky above to descend upon the earth, or the waters of the Roanoke instead of rolling onward to their ocean home, to flow back to the mountain springs of Virginia. They who tell you that the Conservatives mean to enslave you, are grossly ignorant themselves, or they intend to deceive and mislead you, and to awaken in your bosoms a causeless alarm. It is known to every man of the least intelligence, that the Conservatives, both before and since the election, have pledged themselves in the strongest terms to maintain inviolate all of your legal and constitutional rights.

I say to you, my colored fellow-citizens, with earnestness and emphasis, and for the sincerity of the declaration I appeal to the Almighty Ruler of the Universe, that, in my opinion, you have nothing whatever to fear from the action of the Conservative Legislature of North Carolina. No member of that body will be fool enough to attempt to revive the institution of slavery, and if there should be such a simpleton in the Assembly, he would be regarded as a fit subject for the Lunatic Asylum, and would probably be sent there in a very short time. But this is not all. I undertake to say that not only will no bill be passed interfering with any of your rights or privileges, but no such bill will be introduced. Even if all of the white people of North Carolina wished to deprive you of your right to vote, to become witnesses in Courts of Justice, to sit on juries, and to enjoy all other civil rights on a footing of entire equality with the white man, they could not do so, as these privileges are secured to you by the Constitution and laws of the United States. My colored friends, dismiss your fears. I assure you, upon my honor, that there is no ground for the least uneasiness or anxiety on your part. The Conservative members are already committed to the principles which I have expressed.—They are in general men of character and intelligence, and will, no doubt, act in such a manner as to entitle themselves to your esteem, respect and gratitude.

Fellow citizens, I have almost exhausted that portion of your time which I felt disposed to appropriate to myself, but there is one subject very dear to my heart, upon which I am unwilling to be entirely silent. I allude to the discharge of nearly all of our prisoners, who were recently confined by the military authorities, for which discharge I feel grateful to Almighty God. These men have been imprisoned, but they have not been disgraced. The scaffold did not sully, but in fact exalted the fame of Sidney. The gallows did not consign to infamy Col. Isaac Hayne who was hung by the British at Charleston during the war of the Revolution. He will live forever in the gratitude and affections of his country men, and his name, his virtues and his sufferings will be the historian's subject and the poet's theme. The dungeon could not humiliate such a noble North Carolinian as Josiah Turner, in whose bosom every pulse of liberty and patriotism beats high; but it has degraded, and will forever degrade, the tyrant who sent him there, and cover him with stains of dishonor which can never be washed out.

For the blessed deliverance of our noble prisoners—Josiah Turner, John Kerr and others—I raise my voice in gratitude to George W. Brooks, Judge of the District Court of the United States, who discharged his duties with a Roman firmness and energy, when the highest judicial authorities of North Carolina faltered and fell back in the discharge of theirs. I almost envy Judge Brooks. His name will be indissolubly linked with the writ of habeas corpus—the helmet and breast plate of liberty. I had rather enjoy the high honor and the proud privilege of releasing my innocent and injured fellow-citizens from the iron grasp of oppression, than to wear the laurels of the warrior or the diadem of the Prince. By giving ample protection to our dearest rights under the folds of the old flag of our fathers—that flag which waved over the head of Washington at Yorktown, Jackson at New Orleans, Perry and Decatur on the dark blue ocean, and Taylor at Monterey—he has done more than any man living to revive the affections of the Southern people for the Star Spangled Banner.

I raise my voice in gratitude also to the prisoners' counsel—Judge Battle and his sons, to Bragg, Graham, Merrimon and Moore—who advocated their cause with ardent zeal, with fearless independence, and with a power of learning, argument and eloquence worthy of the best and brightest days of the English and American Bar.—They were not counsel for the prisoners alone—they were counsel for the Constitution, for liberty and for the writ of habeas corpus. They were counsel for truth, justice and humanity, and they have won a brilliant victory for them all. These men have proved by their excellent example, what I have long known myself to be true, that an enlightened, honorable and independent Bar is the shield of civil liberty, the bulwark of the Constitution, and the scourge of those who would rob a country of its rights.

In conclusion, fellow-cititizens, I will say that the Conservatives of Warren county have seen fit to have this mass meeting in honor of our late victory. I hope that such celebrations may take place in many other counties. Yes, fellow-citizens, let blooming youth, vigorous manhood and hoary age come up together and rejoice in the fulness of their hearts over the salvation of North Carolina. Let our triumph be commemorated by festivals, by torch light processions, by illuminations, by eloquence, by music, and by song.

I hope that this excellent Band* will have many opportunities of sending forth their most delightful strains of harmony and their most spirit stirring notes in honor of our great and glorious victory. And when, two years hence, a much more important election shall take place, I hope that the lightning courier may bring to us upon its trembling wires more joyful intelligence than we have ever yet received.

I will also cherish the heart cheering anticipation that our victory in North Carolina is destined to be the herald of a grand National triumph, which history will record with a pencil of light. Should such be the case, well may we say, in the language of one of our most beautiful national songs:

"Bring banners, bring banners for the hands of the free,
Let them wave with hosannas o'er the land and the sea.

2. None of this is made up of promissory notes as in many Companies.
3. Its cash income per annum is over $6,300,000.00 and steadily growing larger.
4. None of this is composed of the notes-of-hand of policy-holders, as the case in many companies.
5. It has paid to widows and orphans, and other claimants under policies on deceased members, about $4 000 000.
6. Such payments are made in cash, and not partly in cancelled notes, as is the case in many companies.
7. No deductions are made from the face of a policy for premium notes when it becomes a claim, as is the case in all Note Companies.
8. The sum of $3 500,000, and upwards, in cash divided among policy-holders, (this included the dividend for the present year) as profits of the business.
9. All the profits of the business are annually divided among the assured Equitably, instead of being wholly or partially distributed among the stockholders, as is the case in all "Mixed" and "Proprietary" Companies.
10. Dividends are invariably available as cash in payment of premiums.
11. The dividends are made from the start, and not postponed until after the lapse of several years, as in many Companies.
12. The Society deals Equitably with its policy-holders.
13. The Equitable has made more progress since its organization than any other Life Company in the world.

15. Its modes of applying dividends are more numerous and more advantageous than those of any other company in the world
16. It issues all the popular styles of policy, including "Ten Year Non-Forfeiting" and "Endowment policies"
17. The amount of new business during the year ending "December, 1 1869, was $51,[illegible]
18. Its policies average larger in amount than those of any other company, showing that capitalists select the Equitable for purposes of investment.
19. The profits of the business are apportioned to the assured on the "Contribution Plan," which is conceded to be the only equitable mode of division, and not by the mode adopted by many companies, which is grossly unjust to a large proportion of the policy-holders.
20. It is as liberal in the conduct of its business as is consistent with safety to the assured, and does not sacrifice proper caution to an ambition to increase the nominal amount of its business as is the case with many new companies.
21. It is the favorite company in the United States, as is shown by its new business for last year, being nearly $13,000 000 greater than any other company.

The ladies who visit Hester's new millinery establishment declare it the finest in the State, some of our leading merchants say it would do credit to Broadway; the bonnets and hats are superb.

MAYOR'S COURT.—This tribunal had no onerous task in discharging its functions yesterday morning, only one case coming before it.

Alex Wardford, white, and Nancy Bailey, col. charged with making an indecent exposure of themselves on Thursday night at the Baptist Grove. After paying a fine of $5 this couple were dismissed with a caution.

GYMNASTIC.—Mr. Paul Lincke has been North and returned, and has brought with him all the necessary implements and fixtures for his new gymnasium, in front of Papé's, on Fayetteville street, which will be opened to the public on Monday next. An opportunity will be thus afforded all who desire it, to get necessary and healthful exercise, especially to those of sedentary habits and employments. Mr. Lincke, who is an excellent athlete, will also give lessons in athletics to those who may desire it, by which our young men especially may develope their muscular frames and secure health at the same time. The grounds of the gymnasium are entirely secluded by a high plank fence, so that, should any of the young novitiates imitate Major Jones in "skinning the cat," there will be no one in sight to laugh at them.

MR. EATON'S SPEECH.—We embrace the earliest opportunity after receiving it, to lay before our readers, the able and eloquent speech of our excellent friend, Wm. Eaton, Esq., of Warren, made at the Warrenton barbecue. The demand upon our columns prevented an earlier insertion, and it will be perused with interest by our readers as will everything which comes from the pen or tongue of that judicious and wise Conservative.

NASH SUPERIOR COURT.—At the request of the members of the bar, the next term of the Superior Court of Nash County will commence on the second instead of the first Monday of the term.

S. W. WATTS, J. S. C.

Sept. 23rd, 1870.

PARADE.—The colored Fire Company were out on the streets on Thursday afternoon. The appearance of the Company was creditable both in point of numbers and equipment.

MEETING.—We are requested to state there will be a meeting of the Executive Committee of the State Agricultural Society on Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

POULTRY.—We learn that the North Carolina Agricultural Society has such promise of an extraordinary display of fine Bronze Turkeys, Aylesbury and Rouen Ducks, and besides, rare breeds of chickens and other fowls, that they are building coops for their exhibition. These coops are designed by Mr. Appleget, an Achitect of this city, and are well calculated to enable the occupants to be clearly and distinctly seen. The walls on the sides are of wire net work, not at all obstructing the view, and every arrangement is made for taking good care of the fowls.

This Fair, beginning on the 18th of October, promises to be superior to any heretofore held. The President, Executive Committee and Corresponding Secretary, are working with energy to have all things ready. The walls, stalls, &c., are being white washed, the track covered with sand and rolled smooth, the new building designed for an eating house for ladies and gentlemen, is nearly completed. The fare on the Railroads have been put to a lower figure than ever known before.

Capt. D. P. Mast is recommended for the position of Engrossing Clerk in one of the Houses of the General Assembly, during its next session.

Wilmington a day or two ago was astonished with an ornithological curiosity. A gentleman shot and killed a bird the like of which was never seen before.

FESTIVAL.—The colored Baptists of this city held a festival Thursday evening in the basement of the Market House.

GEORGIA GIVEN UP.—Senator Wilson, of Massachusetts, chairman of the Republican Central Committee at Washington, announces that the Committee entertains no hope of carrying the State of Georgia in the next election. They think however that Alabama and other Southern States will go Radical, and that in the Northern and Western States the Radicals are gaining ground. The information of the Democratic Central Committee however, warrants the belief that the Democrats will have a majority in the next House of Representatives.

SENATOR ABBOTT, C. B.

This carpet bag dueling is now in the city. When he was in Florida, where Gen. Littlefield, through the agency of Gov. Reade, was reconstructing that State, especially her Railroad and State bonds, after the style and pattern by which he reconstructed North Carolina by the aid and agency of Gov. Holden, we advised the people of Florida to arrest him under the vagrant act, because he had no honest means of making a living in that locality. The heroic "bull pusher" is now here, it is said, to make arrangements for the purchase and running of the Standard, soon to be sold.

Pilgrims Ashley, Abbott, Tourgee and Littlefield's brother, Calvin, it is rumored, will purchase the establishment and continue the publication of the villainous sheet that published the wives and daughters of all North Carolinians as harlots, making no exception but of the wives and daughters of Republicans, and they, all but eleven in the entire State, were negro wives and daughters.

We suppose the name of John B. Neathery & Co., W. A. Smith & Co., or some native scalawag, who "fought against the flag," or chased deserters with dogs during the war, will, no doubt, appear at the mast head.

The virtuous wives and daughters of North Carolina have been insulted by the publication of this vile sheet long enough, and when the Standard shall be revived and come forth afresh before the public under the proprietorship of Abbott, Ashley, Tourgee and Littlefield's brother, Calvin, the wives and daughters of the State ought to meet all such of their husbands and brothers as seem disposed to patronize the concern, at the door and bid them leave the foul paper in the yard or throw it on the dunghill, and not allow their houses to be polluted by its presence.

If this had been done long ago, the Standard would have perished, deservedly, before it did, although some of these husbands and brothers might have sold less calico, laces and perfumery to Menninger, Ashley, Littlefield, Brewer, Abbott, Tourgee and Deweese. But the people, on the 4th of August, gave us a happy deliverance from carpet bag rule, in which the lovely wives and daughters of the State contributed no small share; then let us all sing—

"Carolina! Carolina! Heaven's blessings attend her;
While we live we will cherish, protect and defend her;
Though the scorner may sneer at, and Holden defame her,
Our hearts swell with gladness, whenever we name her."

&c., &c., and so forth.

For the Sentinel.

MR. EDITOR:—I notice a good many extra of special premiums have been offered by some of our enterprising merchants and business men, for the encouragement of the male departments at the approaching State Fair; will not some one offer something to induce the ladies of the State to exhibit samples of their art in needlework, knitting, crocheting, &c.? Let the approaching Fair outrival any ever yet held, and by all means offer inducements to the ladies to enter into competition, by offering them extra premiums.

UXOR.

We agree with the writer of the above that there is as much reason for offering special premiumns to the women as to the men. In pursuance of the idea, we offer the following, let others add to the list:

For the likeliest male baby exhibited on the Fair grounds, under ten months old—an ivory rattle.

For the likeliest female baby, under ten, a china doll.

For any baby under 12 months old, brought by its mother and kept on the grounds all day, that does not cry, a new hat and suit of winter clothing.

The latest snake story comes from Bladen County, a huge rattlesnake was recently killed there with innumerable rattles.

The Charlotte papers blow muchly about the number of buildings in course of construction, and improvements generally, now going on in that city.

Two colored men named Hamptin Austin and Phillip Hardy, escaped from the jail in Tarboro on last Monday night.

Tarboro is happy, DeHaven's sensational circus will exhibit there.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Friday Evening Dispatches.

FOREIGN

LONDON, Sept. 23.—The official organ at Berlin contains two notes from Bismarck to the Ambassadors of the neutral Powers of the North German Confederation; the first note of Sept 13th, urges better and more material guarantees against new attack from France, especially upon the South German States. Hence the necessity of the possession of those fortresses which are a perpetual menace. In the second note, Bismarck disavows any intention of intervention for the reorganization of France, but the cession of Strasburg and Metz alone can give material guarantee. While France retains these places, it will be a mere truce, leaving France to choose her own time for the renewal of hostilities.—Germany only asks passive strength to resist such attacks.

The French have abandoned the fortifications at Vincennes. The Prussian guns at Sceaux command the southern parts of Paris. The Prussians avoid St Denis. The bombardment of Toul continues furiously. Sallies from Thornville continue harassing the Prussians. Arrangements have been made to ... inundate the entire surrounding country. This plan will be adopted, should the Prussians approach.

TOURS, Sept 21.—The Paris mails are spasmodic. General Cheeseret is recalled as encouraging dissatisfaction and disorder among the people. Great numbers of French prisoners, who escaped while on route to Germany, reached Lyons; many more reached Toul. Balloons successfully watch the movements of the Prussians from Paris. Another balloon from Metz fell into proper hands, with 150 letters. The garrison and citizens are eating horses; breadstuffs are plenty. Gen. Garibaldi is still a prisoner at Caprera. Italian vessels are cruising around the island to prevent his escape to France.

BERLIN, Sept. 21.—Bismarck and Jules Favre were closeted all day Thursday. Bismarck insist on a Convention or Constituent Assembly to ratify the treaty; Favre conceded indemnity for the cost of the war, the surrender of a part of the French fleet, the dismantling of Strasburg, Metz and possibly other fortifications.

The Prussians are preparing to move on Orleans.

FLORENCE, Sept. 23.—The Italian General Cadorna has sent troops to protect the Pope.

MADRID, Sept. 24.—The Vomito is spreading rapidly in sea coast towns.

MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Flour steady; Wheat a shade firmer; Corn dull and heavy; Pork quiet at 26¼ to 26½; Lard steady; Cotton dull, Uplands 19¼, Orleans 19½, sales 700 bales; Spirits Turpentine steady at 39½; Rosin weak at 1.80 to 1.90.

Stocks very quiet; Gold 13¼; Money 5 to 6; Sterling, long 9¼, short 10¼; 62s. 13¼.

LONDON, Sept 23.—Consols 92¼ bonds 89¼.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 23.—Cotton quiet, Uplands 9¼, Orleans 9¼, sales 10,000 bales.

Friday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—The government has ordered the cases of forgery pending against Hon. R. R. Butler, of Tennessee, in the Pension office, to be suspended until after the election in his district, he having been re-nominated for Congress! The cases have been ordered to be transferred from the Pension Bureau to the Bureau of Justice.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Five hundred Chinese will be at work in a few days grading the Railroad in New Jersey.

The Tribune's special Paris dispatch dated Tuesday evening, says: "Egress from Paris is positively prohibited. The Prussians refuse passes to or from. The Prussian advance pickets are near Malmaison, between St. Germain and Paris. No French troops are in sight. All French troops have retired behind the Paris defences. The country around Paris is deserted, only the Prussians occupy the surrounding country. The Prussians have cantoned the ... below St. Germain, where the army of the Crown Prince is stationed. The siege of Metz has become a mere blockade."

The New York Telegram has the following from Paris: "The Republic censures England for refusing to participate in the negotiations, transfering Rome to Italy."

FOREIGN.

LONDON, Sept 23.—A Berlin telegram, which is to be received with caution, has the following startling intelligence: "Russia is in motion to seize the Black Sea and probably the Dardanelles. A war between the Czar and the Sultan is imminent."

Lunete No. 52, at Strasburg, became the object of a terrible fire. The Prussians lost many, including commander Q itzner.

The Times says that neither the Democratic nor Republican party is sacrificing the German vote through sympathy with the French Republic.

Notwithstanding the blockade, 44 ships have entered Swinemund since September the 2nd. Count De Palikao is with the Emperor. The Princess Mathilde and Count Benedetti are at Brussels.

During the sessions of the British Scientific Association, Major Baumberg presented a paper on the Physical Geography of American emigration, and also on the cotton production. The paper is highly appreciated, especially its recommendation to establish branches of the Supply Association in the Southern States. Newspapers also strongly approve this scheme.

Reports from Paris via Berlin, state that all discipline is vanishing from Paris. The soldiers are mutinous, and in some cases have shot their officers.

The Examiner says that Genl. Uhrich is inclined to surrender, but the wounded soldiers and citizens of Strasburg strongly oppose a surrender. The Germans have armed the captured Lunettes, No. 52 and No. 53 with mortars.

TOURS, Sept 23.—Metz Strasburg and Toul hold out and present at least a fortnights task. In the meanwhile Prussians will detach two corps to Lyons, Havre and Cherbourg, and send flying columns throughout the country for forage. Seventy five thousand cavalry for this service is expected from Germany. A portion of the programme has already been realized. Steinmetz was disgraced because of the heavy losses inflicted by Bazaine. A journal in this city states that M Magne, formerly Minister of Finance, writes privately, that shortly before the change of the Government he paid on receipts for a million chassepots and 300,000 other guns which never were delivered.

MADRID, Sept. 23.—There is intense excitement along the Mediterranean sea, regarding the vomito. It is spreading in all directions.—A thousand cases are reported in Barcelona alone, 400 of which have been fatal.

Seventy thousand people have fled from the city to avoid the pestilence. The disease was brought from Cuba in the Steamer "Maria Pia."

FLORENCE, Sept 23.—Rome is completely occupied. The Pope is allowed to retain a guard of his own troops, but is restricted to those of Italian birth. The rest of his army has dispersed. It is thought a plebiscitum will occur on Sunday. The prisoners captured by the Italians upon occupying Rome amounted to 730, of whom 450 are foreigners.

MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Cotton heavy, sales 2,000 bales, Uplands 19; Flour, State and Western in fair demand, superfine 4 90 to 5.35, Southern unchanged; Wheat firm and in fair export and milling demand, winter red and amber Western 34 to 38; Corn unchanged and in fair request; Pork dull and lower at 25; Lard unchanged; Whiskey dull 89 to 90; Groceries dull and steady; Spirits Turpentine steady; Rosin weak.

AGRICULTURAL.

From the Selma (Ala.) Argus.

PROFESSOR LUPTON ON FERTILIZERS.

EDITOR OF ARGUS: I have read with much interest the reports made at a meeting of "The Farmers' Club of Central Alabama," held in Selma, August 20th, and must confess my surprise at the conclusions reached by the committee, in reference to the use of fertilizers. If, according to one report, the conclusion be correct, that "it will not pay the planter to purchase these commercial fertilizers, if he expects the increased production will pay for the outlay," and, according to another, "bought manures won't pay," then our lands must continue to deteriorate until their impoverishment reaches the point of profitless cultivation, or an improved system of agriculture must be employed, which, dispensing with bought manures, so utilizes the fertilizing materials existing or capable of being produced on every plantation, as to increase or maintain the present standard of fertility. The deterioration of our lands is a fact universally acknowledged, and for one, I am decidedly of opinion, from practical and theoretical considerations, that bought fertilizers can be used profitably in their restoration. There is a deep seated prejudice among many old planters against so-called "scientific" or "book" farming. It is true theorists have made many failures in attempts to reduce their theories to practice, but the right application of scientific principles never produces a failure. The physician, when visiting a patient, must make a correct diagnosis before administering remedies, and his medicines must be what they purport to be, if he would effect a cure. The qualities of soil are various, and fertilizers, like drugs, are notoriously adulterated, which mainly accounts, in my opinion, for the different results reached by experimenters with bought fertilizers. As there is no responsible chemist appointed by the general State Government, or even by our agricultural associations, to inspect and analyze commercial manures, the planter, having no technical acquaintance with chemistry, is liable to be deceived, and is sometimes, as I well know, in cases which have come under my own observation, grossly deceived in the value of his purchases. The inducements to deception on the part of manufacturers is so great, and the probability of detection so small, it is not surprising that the adulteration of fertilizers is frequently practiced. All admit that plants derive their inorganic constituents from the soil, and where one or more of these are absent or deficient, the deficiency must be supplied. The true a variety of conditions are necessary for successful growth and development; but one thing is certain, a sufficiency of proper material must be present in the soil, and in a condition to be absorbed and assimilated by the plant. Bought manures, of course, can be made to pay only when used judiciously, and some failures here and there on account of improper application or unfavorableness of season should not produce their universal condemnation. The results of my own experience can be stated in a few words. In January, 1869, I purchased 900 lbs. of a good super phosphate, and 300 lbs. of Peruvian guano, mixed them thoroughly and applied to a five acre lot, which had been greatly exhausted by continued cultivation in cotton and corn for a number of years. The yield of corn for two years previous had not been over 12 or 15 bushels per acre. The soil is sandy, with red clay subsoil. The seed used was that known as the Dixon. The land was prepared by running a single horse Leach & Avery turn plow in the water furrow, and immediately after that a long scooter. The fertilizer was scattered in this furrow and the bed formed thereon, the scooter following the turn plow and thus subsoiling. The seed were rolled in plaster.—The stand was so poor, even after replanting, that I concluded to plant corn in the missing places, as my supply of Dixon seed was exhausted, and I did not wish to adulterate with other varieties. On the five acres I gathered within a few pounds of fourteen hundred lbs. of cotton, which sold in Mobile at 24 cents. On five acres adjoining, of similar land, where the stand was excellent, I gathered within a few pounds of eleven hundred pounds, making a difference of 300 lbs., which more than paid for the manure, and left the land in good condition for another crop. A few rows left without manure presented a marked contrast to that where the manure had been applied. I have used this year on the same lot 1500 lbs. of a similar mixture, and have already picked out 4,863 lbs of seed cotton. The prospect for at least four bales is good, while that not fertilized is about the same as last year.

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 20 years from May 8th 1869.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and not injurious to the eyes. All they ask is a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 18th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co. with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

SUCCEEDS HIS FATHER IN THE AGENCY OF THE NATIONAL LIFE INSURANCE CO., U. S. A.

For the Central and Northern Counties in NORTH CAROLINA.

The NATIONAL, under the management of his father, P. F. Pescud, Sr., secured very many warm friends who obtained policies for large amounts, and the fact that it has issued upwards of and nearly doubled its immense Capital of $1,000,000 in about two years, speaks more for its wonderful popularity than any language at my command. The rates being based on the Stock Plan, and when contrasted with Mutual Cash rates, are so much lower, that a certain and handsome dividend is secured from the date of the Policy.

10,000 POLICIES,

I will be gratified to take applications from my friends and all wanting Policies, and shall want many active and reliable Agents, in the fields assigned me.

FOR THE IMPROVED

"UTLEY COTTON PRESS."

THE "UTLEY PRESS" so well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh, or my Agents, Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern, with its improvements.

Price $175.00.

This invention of power, whereby all friction is overcome, its simplicity, economy and durability, astonishes all who see it; and the more so, that a power so simple should have remained so long unappropriated. The strain is wholly borne by the Bed Plate, Follower Block, and two 1¼ inch square iron bars, which is capable of sustaining a strain of 190,000 lbs. Thus giving much more strength than is required. WITH THIS PRESS TWO MEN CAN PACK A BALE OF COTTON WITH EASE IN EIGHT MINUTES, WEIGHING FROM 400 to 550 lbs.

One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.

It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the lint direct from the Gin or Lint Room, as may be desired. Thus doing away with baskets, and frequent handling of the lint.

It is light in weight, can be taken down or put up in 30 minutes and transported on a two Horse Wagon.

I believe it unequalled by any Press for power, convenience and durability.

Press complete—Depth Cotton Box 8 feet—Size Bale 44 feet x26x28x56in; wt. Bale 400 to 550 lbs.

T. H. BRIGGS, ESQ.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press," I purchased from you last season, and consider it to be the best Press I ever saw. Having packed bales to weigh from five hundred and ninety (590) to six hundred and twelve pounds (612), I consider it the best and most durable Press I ever saw used, and can cheerfully recommend its use to the farmers of North Carolina.

Yours truly, C. W. BYNUM.

MR. THOMAS H. BRIGGS: Dear Sir:—Yours of 13th instant inquiring as to the merits of the "Utley Cotton Press" is to hand, and in reply I would say that I have tried other Presses and consider the plan upon which the Utley Press works cheaper, simpler and more durable than any I have met with.

Yours very respectfully,
JAS. R. WILDER.

THOS. H. BRIGGS, ESQ: Dear Sir.—In reply to yours of the 13th asking how I was pleased with the Utley Press I used last season, I would say that it gave entire satisfaction.

THOS. H. BRIGGS, ESQ., Raleigh, N. C.: Sir—I have used "Utley's Cotton Press" for baling hay for some months. It works well and gives entire satisfaction. I regard it as the best Hay Press I have seen.

Respectfully, E. H. POGUE.

BRINKLEY, N. C., June 15th, 1870.

T. H. BRIGGS, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press" I purchased from you last season. I packed my own crop of cotton, also other crops for my neighbors, making in all one hundred bales. I consider it superior in all respects to any Press I have ever seen and think it is every thing the patentee represents. I packed bales weighing from four hundred to five hundred and ninety-seven pounds.

Yours truly, W. T. HOWLE.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers, in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important SAFEGUARD. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

CASH ASSETS - - - - - - - - $500,000.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all their really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in the profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stockholders alone, while most of the Mutual and Mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies, in this State who claimed to possess unusual [illegible], together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, besides all [illegible], and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or desires to discontinue, because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income in cash through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the Excelsior forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.
